"Life's most persistent and urgent question is, what are you doing for others?"

- Martin Luther King, Jr.

SISTERHOOD COLLECTED OVER $600 FOR PROJECT SARAH

At their October Dine & Study event, Sisterhood collected Target and Walmart gift cards for Project SARAH (Stop Abusive Relationships at Home), a multifaceted program that helps to end the cycle of abuse for individuals and families. Our South Jersey chapter was built by Beth El member, Hilary Platt.

Gift cards provide one opportunity for survivors of domestic violence to gain agency as they struggle to become independent.

You can learn more about their important work at jfcssnj.org/project-sarah

NOVEMBER WAS A MONTH OF GIVING!

Beth El members helped more than 75 individuals and families as well as 25 Holocaust survivors during our annual Holiday Gift Card Drive for JFCS.

As a community, we also donated more than 110 turkeys for holiday meals for the families served by the Boys and Girls Club of Camden County in memory and honor of beloved member Susan Asbell z"l.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE WITH MACHAR

Our 3rd—5th grade youth group, Machar, had a meaningful afternoon of hands-on mitzvah projects at their Mitzvah Madness event in November. The kids prepared art projects for the Sunrise Association to provide to children battling cancer in our local hospitals. Jennifer Rebetti, Director of Development and Programs from Sunrise, showed a short film and talked to the kids about how these projects would be used. Larry Abrams, Beth El member and founder of BookSmiles, joined us to educate our kids about the importance of sharing the joy of reading with others while our kids sorted the books to be donated to communities in need.

COOK FOR A FRIEND

Let's do a mitzvah together! Join us to prepare and package meals for Beth El congregants in need as well as others served by JFCS.

The most powerful song of our ancestors is Shirat HaYam, the Song of the Sea. It was first sung as we crossed the sea from slavery to freedom and is now recited every morning. It is the central part of parshat B'shallach, which will be chanted on Shabbat Shira, the Shabbat of Song, on Saturday, February 4th. Cantor Sher, our dedicated Adult Choir and I encourage you to join us for a service filled with music, joy, learning and promise. As has become our tradition, our Kiddush lunch will also include cholent!

It is so fulfilling when we gather together in prayer! I am writing this article while still flying high from Rabbi Englander's installation weekend. As you read this, that weekend, as well as our Thanksgiving Day celebrations, are lasting memories, but we are so fortunate to have the opportunity to be thankful every day. In fact, our sages teach us that we are obligated to recite 100 blessings every day! There are so many moments worthy of gratitude in our lives. Even during the most challenging moments, we can live our lives with gratitude and focus on blessings.

We find the Hebrew word for blessing (bracha) again and again in the holy words of our Torah and in our siddur. In prayer, we use the phrase Baruch Atah HaShem, Blessed are You, Gd, as our formula to praise Gd who is a source of blessing. It is a description or acknowledgement of the abundance that comes from Gd and it is also used to draw us close. These blessings are meant to connect us to Gd and to each other in a deeper way.

Rabbi Lawrence Kushner, noted scholar and author on spirituality and mysticism, suggests that Torah is not real because it happened, it is real because it happens. Our text relates how Gd blesses our ancestors and shows how people can bless each other. We can learn more about what they are trying to say to us when we pay attention and respond. Our relationships are based on reciprocal actions and expressions of emotions. Each one of us has the ability to transform gratitude into powerful moments of action.

Music, prayer, and active listening can all serve as amazing vehicles. As friend of Beth El songwriter Benj Pasek has written, There's a place where we don't have to feel alone...and every time that you call out, you're a little less alone.

As you listen, as you pray, as you pay attention to the stories of our ancestors and of your family and friends, consider what you can do to help others find this place at home, at work, at school and at our beloved Beth El. We can all be here for one another.

We are supported by hands that uplift us, even in the midst of a fall. We are urged on by eyes that meet us, even when we are too weak for a meeting. Ours are the arms, the fingers, the voices; ours are the hands, the eyes, the smiles. We are loved by an unending love.

- Rabbi Rami Shapiro

I hope these words inspire you as much as they inspire me.

Blessings for health, healing, love and peace,

Hazzan Alisa Pomerantz-Boro

A Brief Note from Rabbi Englander

Dear Friends, as I mentioned during the High Holidays, Beth El will be a place that remembers those lost to the Covid-19 pandemic. We will establish a memorial in their names that will reside here in perpetuity.

Please take a moment to email me

(denglander@bethelsnj.org) the names of those lost to you – family and friends alike and their relationship to you. More information and the chance to provide additional life-affirming stories of these precious souls gone too soon will be forthcoming. May their memories be for a blessing.

Dear Parents & College Students,

The College Connection mourns the passing of Ira Back, husband of Gloria Back who founded the College Connection Program. Our thoughts and prayers are with Gloria and her family.

On December 6, we sent out over 70 packages for Chanukah to those undergraduate students registered in our program. We hope they enjoyed the chocolates and other goodies in the package and wished them well on their finals.

Our Purim package will be sent out the beginning of March 2023. If you would like to sign up your student or there is a change in your student's address, please email Ann Miller at ALM4SP@aol.com or Jackie Bernard at 4bernards@comcast.net to let us know.

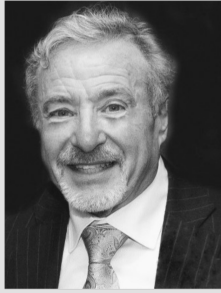

To volunteer or become involved in the committee, please contact Jackie Bernard at 856-630-0585 or at 4bernards@comcast.net.

Hoping all of our students are enjoying their winter break and wishing them a successful spring semester.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Stuart A. Sauer
President

Rabbi Englander's official installation as Senior Rabbi is now part of our great history. At the end of August, Rabbi's Shabbat morning sermon talked about the "end of the beginning". The ice cream socials, meet and greets and even a Phillies vs Mets baseball game were all accomplished and very successfully. There were many memorable moments over the last 5 months, but there is one event that really made me think about the future of our Shul.

On Sunday morning during the Installation Weekend, Beth El hosted a Brunch and Learn event. Not only was there delicious food but also food for thought. Rabbi invited a number of his colleagues from around the area along with our own dynamic clergy, to help engage in some scholarly learning for about 20 minutes. Each table had a facilitator and a study guide that had various topics. Our table selected the topic, "How the Jews Invented Hope".

We discussed Western civilization and compared two cultures, ancient Greece and ancient Israel. The Greeks gave the world the concept of tragedy. Jews gave the world the idea of hope. We compared that the ancient Greek culture no longer exists, yet the ancient Israel culture continues to thrive and grow. Jews are lifelong learners and we prioritize and cherish family and education. Learning gives us hope from one generation to the next generation.

Congregation Beth El has learning opportunities that focus on all ages, young and old. Our Early Childhood Center and Religious School are the cornerstones on how we educate our children. Hebrew High School and Junior College, prepares our teens to be knowledgeable of their heritage and be proud Jews. KaHaL - The Krupnick Herman Academy of Learning, offers a deep dive and a variety of teaching forums to engage in adult education. We provide the educational framework that encourages personal and spiritual growth for all our members and community. Education preserves our heritage across generations.

Beth El continues to do what generations before us have done so successfully. To teach and inspire Jewish education, values, and instill Yiddish pride. Our clergy, educators, and guest speakers guide and nurture us to explore our own individual Jewish identity and experience. We are a people of learners. We discuss and challenge each other. We may not agree on all subjects, but at the end of our study, we respect each other.

That is the hope and future of our Shul. To secure a strong Jewish community that brings life, learning, happiness and joy, simchas and nachas to all.

Zie Guzunt, Be Well!

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Josh Laster
Executive Director

I follow Adam Grant on social media. He's an Organizational Psychologist, New York Times bestselling author, TED Talk presenter and podcaster. This was a recent post from him I find to be meaningful as both a Jewish Communal Professional and parent:

"Too many people spend their lives being dutiful descendants instead of good ancestors. The responsibility of each generation is not to please their predecessors. It's to improve things for their offspring. It's more important to make your children proud than your parents proud."

I'm drawn to this quote because reading it through a Jewish lens, we have the commandment to honor our parents and the connection to clearly respect and learn from our ancestors as well as to teach our children with both text and action. In my role as Executive Director of Beth El, I have frequent conversations about why people should belong to a synagogue. A common answer is that the people before us created and belonged to synagogues to strengthen the Jewish community, and it's our obligation to do the same for the next generation. Some might argue it's different now. I would argue it's not. With the rise, or more appropriately, unveiling of antisemitism, having strong, supported, synagogues is more important than ever. If our candle flickers, someone is watching to see if it will go out. They may even be hoping it goes out. We must never let it go out. Strong synagogues help the light of Judaism to shine bright.

So what can you do to support a strong Jewish presence in our community? Continue to be a part of our synagogue, encourage and insist that others do the same, talk to family and friends about why you are doing it, give meaningfully. Help keep Beth El strong. This is what we must do in order to improve things for future generations, to make our children proud, and in turn we will of course make our ancestors proud in the process.

Rabbi Nogah Marshall Educational Director

KULANU

As a mother of two daughters in Elementary and Middle School, I hope and pray that my children will one day live in a world where we do not have to counter antisemitism and bias acts of hatred. However, in today's world Jews and non-Jews of all ages often experience acts of hatred and at times do not know how to react.

We are very fortunate to have an organization that is here to help us educate others and help stop these terrible acts of hate right in our backyard. The ADL, Anti-Defamation League, founded in 1913, is the leading anti-hate organization in the world. The mission of the ADL is "to stop the defamation of the Jewish people and to secure justice and fair treatment to all". The ADL today continues to fight all forms of antisemitism through a variety of avenues while working to protect democracy and to create a just and inclusive society for all walks of life.

I am very proud to share that Congregation Beth El has been chosen to be part of a new initiative of the ADL called Kulanu. Kulanu, Hebrew for "all of us," is an eight-month program, dedicated to empowering congregations to address antisemitism and hate in their communities through education, community engagement, and advocacy.

During these eight months we will join a network of congregations to build bridges of understanding across communities. As part of the Kulanu program we commit to the following:

- Establish a working group that oversees Kulanu programming in our community
- Promote reporting of anti-Semitic and bias incidents to the ADL
- Implement two programs, one of which engaging an external audience beyond our synagogue community

I am thrilled to announce that we have created a working group consisting of eleven Beth El members committed to educating and empowering our community to address antisemitism and hate in our communities. Over the next eight months we will create educational programs, provide information to our community of ways to promote reporting incidents of hate to the ADL, and provide other learning opportunities.

If you are interested in helping to plan our programs please reach out to me at nmarshall@bethelsnj.org.

If you are in need to report an antisemitic and bias incident to the ADL please go to adl.org/reportincident-kulanu.

Let's work together to fill our world with kindness.

Ayelet Mittelman ECC Director

It's 2023!!!! We had a wonderful end of 2022 by celebrating Chanukah with our entire ECC for the first time in years! We gathered together in the sanctuary, the three and four year olds performed Chanukah songs for everyone and then all of our families were invited to work on a family craft and take home some treats! The older children also had the opportunity to learn about how olive oil is made, which could be used in lighting the Menorah, at our annual Olive Press class taught by Rabbi Kahan.

We had our very first Pre-K AND K-8 Scholastic Book Fair! It was so much fun watching our inspired young readers pick out their new favorite books! At the beginning of the year we launched our monthly "2 Lunch 2sday" program, creating an opportunity for our children to give back to the community by collecting food items that are then donated to the Betsy and Peter Fischer Food Pantry.

Our phenomenal PTG has worked on some amazing fundraising efforts, and we are looking forward to all of the good work that we will continue to do together to help the ECC grow and thrive!

We are so looking forward to some exciting Pesach programming and events and before we know it, spring will be here!

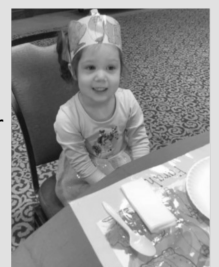

The ECC students enjoyed their visit with the Voorhees Township Fire Department.

They loved looking at the fire truck and meeting the firefighters!

The ECC expressed how thankful they are and showed their gratitude to their friends, family and teachers at the Fancy Feast.

Please remember Beth El when you do your Estate Planning. Leaving a legacy is simple: Bequest in a Will, Gift of Life Insurance, Gift of IRA or Pension Funds, Gift of Cash or Assets, Charitable Remainder Trust.

Installation Weekend for Rabbi Englander

In November, hundreds of members of our congregation and community joined in the celebration of Rabbi Englander's Installation as Senior Rabbi of Beth El.

Thank you to the installation committee: Jerry Bralow, Emily Caracciolo, Jeff Cohn, Barbara Frantz, Debra Kelberg, Marla Rosenthal, Harriet Schulman, Faye Shapiro.

Special thank you to Barbara Frantz and Marla Rosenthal for their hard work on the spectacular centerpieces.

We also extend gratitude to volunteers Sharon Katz, Linda Lazarow, Cheryl Riley, and Jim Silberman for their assistance.

We look forward to a fabulous future with Rabbi Englander, Hazzan Pomerantz-Boro, Rabbi Krupnick, and everyone in our Beth El family. Hazak, hazak, ve-nithazek.
